GRADUATE STUDENT WRITE-INS

SATURDAYS 11 A.M. TO 3 P.M.
PERRY LIBRARY #1208
OR ONLINE VIA ZOOM

If you're trying to make progress on an article, dissertation, or course project, and would benefit from some quiet camaraderie, and a structured time to focus on your writing, we welcome you to join us for this weekly writing retreat. Our goal is to provide a time and space for graduate students to set writing goals and work without interruption in a supportive environment. We begin each session with realistic goal setting and end the session by considering next step goals.
