Services cont.

Graduate Student Write-ins

- Write-Ins are weekly writing retreats hosted by the Writing Center on Saturdays 11am-2pm for graduate students.
- Provide a time and space for graduate students to set writing goals and work without interruption in a supportive environment.
- Graduate tutors available for shorter 30 min. appointments during this time.
- The first Fall 2019 write-in will be Saturday August 31st.

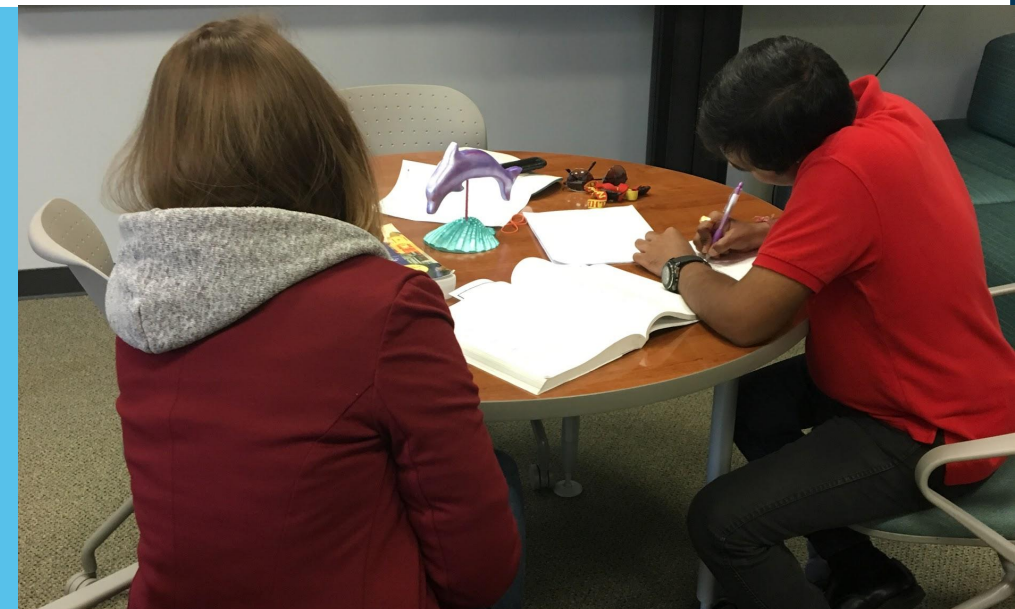

What should you expect?

Helpful Tips:

- Be ready to collaborate.
- Bring your assignment sheet.
- You can print out your essay, bring your laptop, or use one of our desktop computers.

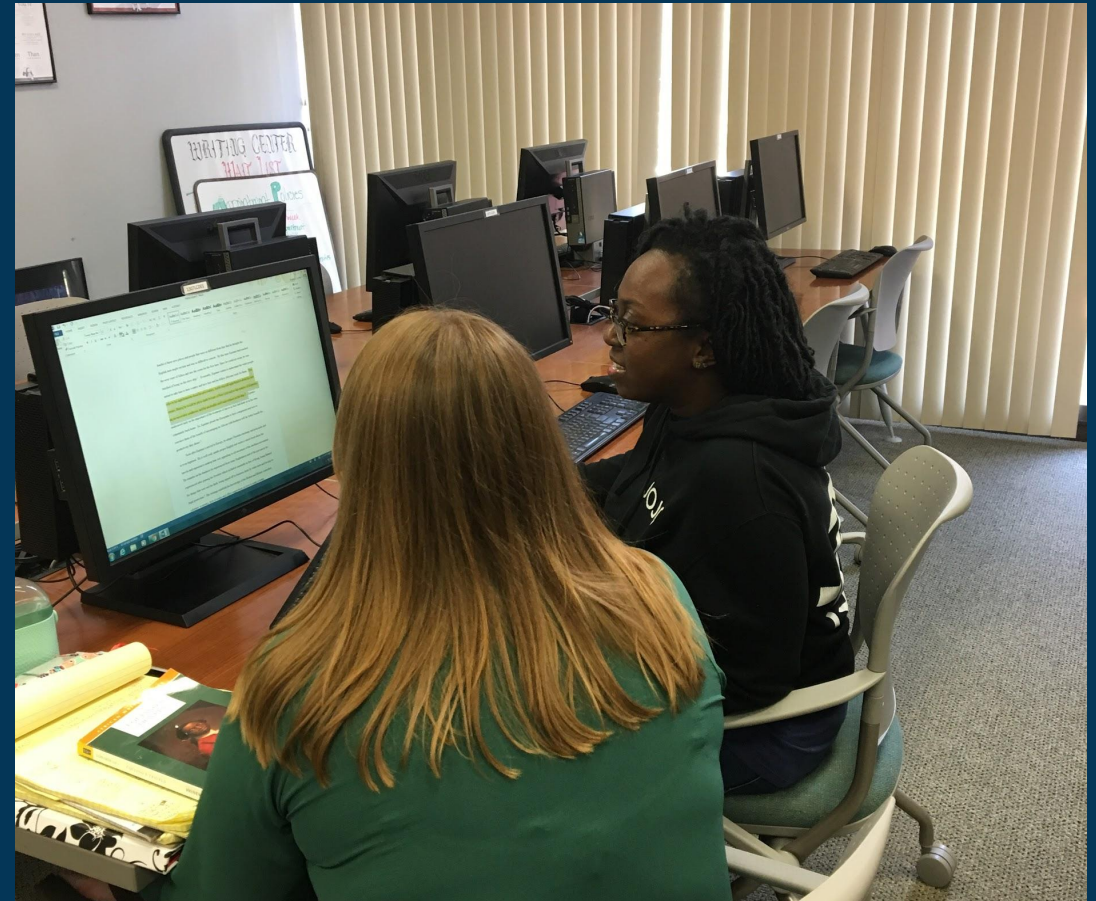

Who will you work with?

Skilled consultants

- are graduate students in English
- with a variety of backgrounds, education, and training

What does the Writing Center do?

- help with writing strategies
- help students learn to proofread and edit
- assist with all aspects of the writing process

We welcome
students of all levels.

We encourage self-referrals and voluntary use of the WC.

What will the Writing Center not do?

- line-by-line editing or proofreading
- act as a paper drop-off service
- accept faculty-required appointments for entire classes
- predict grades
- participate in grade arbitration or appeals
